

Services

The machine which does not run does not make any profit. To make matters worse, it makes cost. To prevent this matter, PASO service team secures the production capability of customers through various efforts or if a problem occurs, tries to recover it as fast as possible.

The site maintenance,

PASO has a special checklist for all products for correct and fast checking. Customer can select maintenance program for prevention, receive the complete check.

According to the fixed interval per customer and prevent the failure of machine and extend the life of machine.

Report service,

We provide a report service for the problems occurred for the product provided by PASO.

As a solution for various causes collected in the latest data base of PASO,

We can provide the answer fast without spending the time for analysis and test.

When you need any help unexpectedly, you can receive fast and concrete response.